BRIEF FACTS

Based on criminal intelligence, the Office of the Special Prosecutor (OSP) commenced investigations on 9 January 2024 into the illegal sale of Ghana Education Service (GES) appointment letters to prospective applicants seeking to be recruited as teachers into GES. The intelligence disclosed that the first accused person, a Technician at Local Government Service, Adeiso District, acting together with other persons and officials of GES solicited money from prospective teacher applicants, generally graduates from various teacher training institutions to corruptly secure their appointment into the GES.

Investigations by the OSP established that the issuance of the appointment letters to prospective teacher applicants was made possible due to the involvement of the accused persons herein, acting together with some other suspects, including (1) ANTHONY GYASI (AT LARGE), an IT Officer who works at the head office of GES; (2) SADIA ALHASSAN (AT LARGE), a Teacher at Philip Quaque Boys Basic School under GES, and (3) FRANCIS ASARE (AT LARGE), a private businessman. The investigations further revealed that the first accused person upon the instructions of ANTHONY GYASI received huge sums of money into his Zenith Bank Account No. 4010951648. These consisted of payments made by prospective teacher applicants to the first accused person in exchange for GES appointment letters. Investigations so far reveal that between January 2022 and December 2023, the first accused person received a total of SIX MILLION, FORTY-TWO THOUSAND AND SIX HUNDRED GHANA CEDIS (GHS 6,042,600.00) into his Zenith Bank Account Number 4010951648 which he in turn transferred to ANTHONY GYASI (AT LARGE). Evidence from the investigations shows that during the same period of January 2022 to December 2023, the first accused person personally received the sum of FIVE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY THOUSAND GHANA CEDIS (GHS 580,000.00) from one Hundred (100) teacher applicants through the sale of GES appointment letters under the pretext of securing their appointment into the GES.

Investigations further established that the second accused person, solicited monies from eleven (11) prospective teacher applicants amounting to FIFTY-FIVE THOUSAND GHANA CEDIS (GHS 55,000.00) and gave same to the first accused person, for the purpose of securing Ghana Education Service appointment letters for the said prospective applicants. The second accused person admitted to assisting Asumah Karikari Gloria, Simon Hackman Boadi, Peggy Odame, Yvette Kyei, Afoakwa Joana Asare and Tetteh Regina Djabakie and four (4) others with their recruitment into GES.

The accused persons were subsequently arrested and have been charged with the offences contained in the charge sheet.
